Bottger Mansion of Old Town Bed and Breakfast

Each of the seven guest rooms of Bottger Mansion Bed and Breakfast, provides guests with all the modern amenities, along with a rich history. In celebration of 100 years, "We have spent the past year researching the house and the Bottger family and have placed many historic photographs and artifacts throughout the house," says Innkeeper Kathy Hiatt. Perfect to rekindle that romance! "Our romance package makes it easy to have it all," says Kathy. "Roses, chocolates, a keepsake 'do not disturb' sign, and optional in-room breakfast." At the Bottger Mansion, "We anticipate our guests' needs," notes Kathy.

Headlands Inn Bed and Breakfast

Warm hospitality are just two of the many words people think of, when they think of the Headlands Inn, located in Mendocino, California. This 1886 Victorian Salt-Box truly encompasses the charm of Mendocino. Headlands Inn offers guests choice of six guest rooms, all with private bath, in the main inn. There is an enchanting romantic cottage that features a jetted tub for two and romantic fireplace. "We're a small quaint inn, with the serenity and the beauty of Mendocino," says innkeeper Denise McNicol. "Breakfast served in room, comfy featherbeds, wood burning fireplaces, the sound of the surf- romance abounds!"

The Highland Manor Inn

One of the only remaining Victorian buildings in Canada, built in 1872 in Owen Sound, Ontario, is The Highland Manor Inn, Grand Victorian Bed and Breakfast. Conveniently located near Georgian Bay, Bruce Peninsula, and Sauble Beach, it's the perfect spot. Enjoy an area that will astound you with its natural beauty! Highland Manor offers guests four guest rooms. According to Innkeeper Linda Bradford, "The age of the Highland Manor, the fireplaces in the bedrooms...and the peacefulness of the house," are what make the inn romantic. She continues to say, "According to many of our guests, 'the question' has been popped many times in The Fleming room!" Where better to propose than in the Bridal Suite?
